ORAL ORDER
(17.12.2007)

SUNIL KUMAR SINHA, J.

Heard finally with the consent of parties.

Learned counsel for the petitioner argues that the correct date of birth of the petitioner is 07.2.1947 whereas it has wrongly been mentioned in his service records as 07.2.1946. He submits that in this regard many representations were given and the last representation dated 18.2.2006 has been given to the concerned authority, but no action has been taken in respect of correction of the date of birth of the petitioner. He submits that for the time being this petition may be disposed of with a direction to the petitioner to file a detailed representation along-with relevant documents before the concerned authority and the concerned authority may be directed to dispose of the said representation at the earliest.

This limited prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioner is not opposed by learned State Counsel.

It is directed that if so advised, the petitioner may file a detailed representation along-with a copy of this order and a copy of this writ petition as also the documents annexed thereto within a period 3 weeks from today and if such a representation is filed, the concerned authority shall dispose of the said representation at the earliest so that the controversy raised by the petitioner may come to an end, at least before the date of his superannuation.

With the aforesaid observation, this petition stands finally disposed of.
